

Commissions Terms and Conditions

- All artwork is Original and created by the artist Larissa Chadney.
- Bookings are not confirmed until a 25% booking fee is made, this is a sum of the total price of the commission and is non-refundable.
- All Copyright, Media use and Reproduction rights are reserved by the Artist, reproductions must be a mutual agreement between the Artist and the Client.
- If the Client would like Giclee Prints of their commission, this must be discussed with the Artist, who can run a line of prints specifically for the client, accessible to order only by the Client and each coming with their own certificate of Authenticity.
- The Artist will not make reproductions of the Artwork Unless agreed with by the client, the Artist owns all copyright, and the client must only obtain reproductions directly from the Artist
- Once Completed an image of the final completed work will be provided, at this point the remaining 75% of the payment is expected within 30 days.
- If after 30 days the remaining of the payment has not been received the artist reserves the right to sell on the original artwork and create and sell reproductions.
- Reference photos must be provided at the start of booking to check for suitability before the booking fee is made.
- Clients are responsible for any custom charges or fees occurred during shipping or postage.
- Drawing on top of the original artwork other than the Artist themselves is not permitted.
- The Artist Obtains the right to share Media of the original Artwork on Social Pages and their Website.